

Build a fire on the beach and roast marshmallows

Less light pollution from the city means brighter nights. Check out the stars from your deck.

Check out the diving peregrine falcons on the cliffs near Cape Meares lighthouse

While you are there, check out the Cape Meares Lighthouse. There is a good article about it on Wikipedia.

www.clipartof.com - 441211

Be on the lookout for elk in the area. At times, we have seen 15 at one time gathered on our little golf course or across the street.

Find a good place to watch the wonderful sunsets we get here

Take a nap

When the big storms hit, stay inside and just listen while cuddled up in a blanket

Play a crazy family card game like Nertz which is like rapid fire multi player solitaire

Shop Lexi's Cool Stuff near the Netarts grocery store

Build a sand castle

Walk your dog on the beach

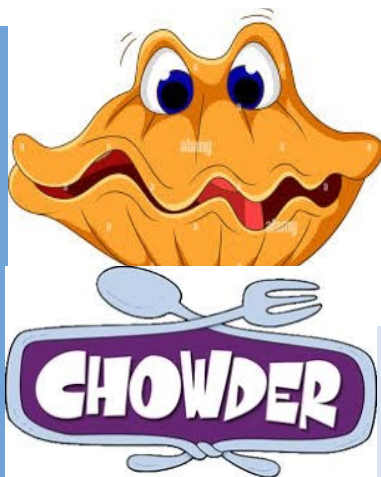

Collect sand dollars and agates

Light up the barbecue

Use a candle or a flashlight during a power outage

Go clamming on Netarts Bay and then make clam chowder

Bury a friend in the sand in the beach

Practice golf shots out back

Kayak in Lake Meares

Just day dream

Fly a kite on a windy day

Have a great cup of coffee

Walk the beach from Happy Camp to Oceanside or around Cape Lookout beach and trail.

Hike the sand dunes in Pacific City

Whale watching season is typically December and January and March through May

Rent a dune buggy at Sand Lake

Kick back and read a good book

Find a tide pool

Pitch a tent and sleep under the stars.

Bike along the bay or beach

Investigate the tunnel at Oceanside

ToonClips.com #55827 service@toonclips.com

Actually put a foot in the ocean

Sample the many wonderful flavors at Tillamook Ice Creamery

Play bingo at Netarts Fire Hall

Throw a frisbee

Oh yeah, and fishing

You can't beat the crabbing on Netarts Bay